Château Lagrange 2015

106

Bordeaux, France

An indulgent wine dominated by dark fruits and spices.

A Third Growth wine with 120 hectares under vine, Lagrange has made a polished, silky wine in 2014 with black fruits, liquorice and pencil lead on the nose and palate. A classic St Julien, perfectly poised and refined.

Catena Zapata Argentino 2020

122

Mendoza, Argentina

Big and robust with a deep, black fruit, peppery spices and savoury undertones.

‘Ten centuries of life, death and rebirth’. The epic tale of the noble Malbec grape is like no other, and the label for Catena Zapata Malbec Argentino pays tribute to the variety’s history in France and its rise in Argentina. No matter what the vintage, this wine is really more than 100 years old. It represents a family’s journey to produce an Argentine Malbec that can stand with the great wines of the world. It has an opulent bouquet, with dark cherries, iodine, minerals and blueberry that are all beautifully defined. The palate has a dense, weighty entry with layers of ripe blackberry and boysenberry fruit laced with crushed stone and a touch of graphite.

Beaune 1er Cru Clos Des Ursules, Domaine Louis Jadot

139

Burgundy, France

Complex and full-bodied with a deep ruby colour and aromas of dark fruits, cherry and redcurrant. This walled vineyard of 2.75 hectares forms an enclave within the Premier Cru of Vignes Franches. The name commemorates the former ownership by the Convent of St Ursula in Beaune but it has been owned by the Jadot family since 1826. The wines are silky-smooth and elegant with great suppleness. Louis Jadot regard this as their flagship wine: with justification.

Bibi Graetz Testamatta Rosso

159

Tuscany, Italy

Rich and textured, displaying flavours of ripe berries, black cherries and sweet spices

Bibi Graetz is one of Tuscany’s great mavericks and for nearly two decades has been concentrating on making some of the most distinctive and exciting wines in the region. After the initial Supertuscan revolution in the 60s and 70s with Sassicaia and Tignanello, Bibi leads another wave of pioneers. Specialising in old vine Sangiovese, his vineyards, dotted about Chianti Classico, are populated by gnarled fifty-eighty year old vines, which provide great intensity and wisdom to his wines. The diverse blend of terroirs, and soil types further add to the kaleidoscope of complex characters his wines exude. Very attractive combination of dried fruit and spices with black cherries and plums. Aromas of flowers and sandalwood, too. Full-bodied and very refined, yet intense, with plush, velvety tannins that are wonderfully integrated and intertwined with the fruit. Ripe center palate.

Château La Gaffelière, 1er Grand Cru Classé St-Émilion 2012

176

Bordeaux, France

Violets on the nose, with a wonderfully refined, focussed palate. This is so long, and so moreish. Château La Gaffelière is an exciting St-Emilion estate. It boasts fine terroir, illustrious neighbours including Châteaux Ausone and Pavie, and a winemaking team committed to making top Bordeaux. The vines lie on an ancient historical site, thought to have once been part of a sprawling Roman estate, and later a leper colony - its name comes from the french word 'Gaffet,' meaning leper.

Francois Millet Volney 1er Cru

181

Burgundy, France

Finely wooded with bright red fruits and floral, violet aromas. The 'triangle', Francois loves the elegance offered by this 1er Cru. East exposition, lots of Limestone near the surface. Complex, elegant, powerful and structured with an awe-inspiring purity of place. Make no mistake, this is one of the worlds great Pinot Noir for those in the know.

Château Beychevelle 2014

Bordeaux, France

Elegant and powerful, expressing aromas of red fruit, blackcurrants and spices. Château Beychevelle Saint-Julien is a Fourth classified growth. It already reveals power and a beautiful structure that turns into creamy tannins. On the palate, one discovers roundness, persistence and enjoyable characteristics - due to the fine grapes of Cabernet Sauvignon - which foreshadow a perfectly balanced wine. This is a promising 2014 Beychevelle, one among the best.

Château Montrose 1998

297

Bordeaux, France

Silky and fresh on the palate, with notes of tobacco, dark chocolate, coffee, dark fruit and leather. The 1998 vintage from Château Montrose demonstrates a splendid maturity reached by this noble St-Estephe wine. This particular year's offering stands as a testament to the resilience and adaptability of the Château in a season that posed substantial challenges across Bordeaux. Complex on the nose, delivering aromas of leather, black fruit, liquorice. Silky and fresh on the palate, with notes of brown tobacco, dark chocolate, grounds of coffee, blackberry, blackcurrant, and slight leather. The tannins are fine, elegant, and melted.

Château La Mission Haut-Brion, Cru Classé Pessac-Léognan 2011

393

Bordeaux, France

An enticingly aromatic nose of ripe red berried fruit, baked earth with subtle menthol and cedar notes. Comprising 62% Merlot and 38% Cabernet Sauvignon there is a sweetness of red berries and blackcurrants on the entry before the finely tuned tannins envelope the palate with waves of textural richness building towards a fan tail finish with notes of leather and sweet spice.

RARE & FINE

bottle

Carruades de Lafite 2005

637

Bordeaux, France

Medium-bodied, with soft tannins and a fruity, plummy, milk chocolatey aftertaste.

This is an extremely Grand Vin for a second wine. A beguiling perfumed nose seems to offer almost tropical hints to the main fruity, floral and cedar aromas. Carruades is normally a bit harder to get into but when you taste it you feel you want to take this home and drink it straightaway; on your own. There is concentrated red fruit on the palate, that is silky, elegant and complex, all buttressed very nicely by a slab of fresh acidity and very fine tannins. Tasted blind you would easily take this for a 2nd or 3rd growth.

2012 Opus One (2022 Ex-Estate release),

673

Mondavi/Rothschild, Napa Valley

California, USA

Dark red and black fruit, smoke, cedar, new leather and tobacco all meld together with fine, silky tannins to support the huge, creamy finish. With enticing aromatics of ripe blackberry, graphite and an earthy nose, there is a restrained exoticism here typical of the finest Oakville Cabernets. The palate is plush with incredible quality of sweet tannin and great balance, making it very approachable, like a Pauillac on steroids. With black cherry, iodine, camphor and real vitality, this is a wine of many layers with a very bright future.

Château Lafite-Rothschild, 1er Cru Pauillac 2006

1133

Bordeaux, France

Still something of an unsung hero. The 2006 Lafite-Rothschild was one of those classically proportioned vintages from this Château; it exuded refinement but was possibly outgunned by richer, bolder more powerful examples when tasted prior to its en primeur release in spring 2007. If the prerequisites for a great wine are harmony, refinement, purity, proportion and length of flavour with sufficient structure to reward long-term ageing, then 2006 Château Lafite-Rothschild is surely one. A classic in the truest meaning of the word. Opaque in the glass, Lafite shows beautiful scents of blackcurrant, tobacco leaf and minerals. The palate is bold and expansive, with a taut tannic structure that is veiled by appealing pure, dusky black fruit. A classical, majestic Lafite with fine potential. Robert Parker Score: 97 points

Meursault Cuvée Charles Maxime Latour Giraud 2020

94.95

Burgundy, France

Full and fruit-driven with creamy, ripe melon fruit flavours.

Jean-Pierre Latour is your archetypal small Burgundian grower. A visit to the winery involves little more than popping under the garage to the cuverie and barrel cellar, squeezing in amongst the tanks to find a perch for your glass. The quantities here are tiny, with Jean-Pierre's vines split amongst over thirteen vineyards in Meursault, Puligny, Pommard and Volnay. Both the Latours and the Girauds have a long family history in Burgundy and everything about the domaine speaks of unpretentious, authentic winemaking. The house style is classic Meursault: ripe and full but finely balanced too with that peculiarly French word, nervosité. A fabulous Meursault wine with a very appealing nose with whisky barrel hints and plenty of nutty richness.

Pouilly-Fuissé 1er Cru Prestige, Domaine Nadine Ferrand 2022

97.95

Mendoza, Argentina

A rich, creamy wine with aromas of exotic fruit complemented by subtle hints of vanilla.

The palate is round and buttery with ripe pineapple flavours enveloped in delicate toasty oak nuances. Domaine Ferrand is run by Nadine Ferrand who has managed the estate since 1984. Through her courage, determination and intuition she has developed and transformed the 11.5-hectare vineyard in the heart of the Pouilly Fuissé. In 2012, Nadine was joined by her eldest daughter Marine, the fourth generation to work in the family business. Having worked in the wine industry in the United States, Marine has brought with her innovative ideas while continuing the family philosophy of "expressing Chardonnay with a feminine touch".

Beaune Blanc 1er Cru Les Bressandes, Domaine Gagey, Louis Jadot

107

Burgundy, France

A vivacious acidity is balanced by rich aromas and flavours of white fruit, spice and toast.

Louis Jadot Beaune Bressandes 1er Cru Blanc is made from grapes sourced from the "Les Bressandes" vineyard. Beaune Bressandes 1er Cru is situated at the North of the vineyard, at the top of the slope above Les Toussaints and Les Cents Vignes and next to Les Grèves. It is considered to be one of the finest white Premiers Crus. Vivacious acidity balanced by rich aromas and flavours of white fruit, spice and toast. The wine will develop in the bottle for 12 to 15 years after the vintage.

Chassagne-Montrachet, Louis Jadot

117

Burgundy, France

White flower and white fleshed fruit aromas, with nuances of oak and a touch of terroir.

The house of Louis Jadot was founded in 1859 and own over 60ha of vineyard. This beautifully balanced Chardonnay shows touches of peppermint infused with citrus fruit. The palate is silky with slightly viscous, honeyed fruit rendering this quite rich in style, but nicely balanced with a little fieriness toward the persistent finish.

La Chablisienne Chablis Grand Cru Château Les Grenouilles 2020

133

Burgundy, France

Floral, ripe citrus and stone fruit, with a palate of lemon, peach and flinty minerality. A luminescent wine. Matured in French oak barrels, this outstanding Chablis Grand Cru Grenouille is rich, creamy and full-bodied and interspersed by floral overtones, hints of honey, vanilla, cinnamon, white pepper and a touch of the mineral character so typical of top-class Chablis. A fine wine that is full of richness and intensity.

Puligny-Montrachet Charmes Domaine Alain Chavy 2018

144

Bordeaux, France

Complex and elegant, with flavours of ripe apples and lemons.

Alain Chavy has been joined by his son Corentin at this splendid Puligny domaine, created in 2003 when Alain and his brother Jean-Louis went their separate ways. All the wines are fermented and aged for twelve months in barrel followed by six months in stainless steel vats in one of the few underground cellars in Puligny. Alain prefers crisp, mineral wines with pure fruit flavours and less obvious oak. Domaine Alain Chavy Puligny-Montrachet 2018 is an absolutely stunning wine. This Puligny-Montrachet produced by Alain Chavy is superb. Citrus fruit characteristics leap out of the glass and onto the nose with subtle and delicate hints of oak. The wine is rich and complex on the palate with citrus fruit and peach flavours. Fresh and minerally at the finish with lingering fruit flavours. Overall a wonderfully well balanced wine.

Domaine de Chevalier Blanc, Cru Classé Pessac-Léognan

175

Bordeaux, France

There is a pleasing weight here, though nothing heavy, glorious, slightly viscous texture, with well-integrated creamy, vanillin oak nuances and a mineral race. The finish is long, lingering with aspects of mouthwatering grapefruit, and a lemony dart of acidity.
